THE AUTHOR

John Bryant was raised in Folkestone, Kent and in his student days worked on the British Rail ferries which then operated out of nearby Dover. He has been a regular contributor to Ferry Publications since its very beginnings. Now retired after nearly 20 years as a Primary School Headteacher, this is his first major title for the leading publishers of maritime books. John knows the Hurtigruten well and the genesis for this book follows articles written for Ferry Publications on today's operation, together with a well received Photo Feature which appeared in their Ferry & Cruise Annual 2012. With his wife Cathy, John has lived in Crawley, West Sussex for over 35 years.
